What job does James do? Why is he so pleased to have this new job?

Why might James be experiencing a sore throat? Where did the residents on Disease Street get their medicines?

Find at least three other characters on Disease Street and write something about their work and health

Write a diary entry as if you are James, after a day delivering books. Consider his walks along the street and the people he would meet.

Imagine you are James and write a letter to an old friend at the workhouse you left behind. Describe your new job and lifestyle compared to life in the workhouse.
