

Key

Sensory content

Seating

Hands-on activities

Making us Well, Outside In

How far have we come in solving the public health problems of Disease Street?

Disease Street

Meet the people who live on the grimy streets of Victorian Leeds and discover the problems they face

Introduction to Disease Street

Meet Hannah Dyson and other characters from Disease Street

Start here

Introduction
to exhibitions

Mortuary

Includes images
of dead bodies

Victorian Operating Theatre

Meet the surgeon as he prepares to amputate a patient's leg

Includes
immersive film

Breakout Space

Disease Detectives

The amazing world
of microbes

To:

Toilets
Café
Shop
Stairs/lift
Conference Centre
Nerve Centre
The Core

Ground Floor

We suggest taking a photo of these maps to refer to during your visit

Suggested route

To:

- Toilets
- Café
- Shop
- Stairs/lift
- Conference Centre
- Nerve Centre
- The Core

Start here

Cutting Edge

Vote on major innovations in the history of medicine

Healthcare Heroes

Spot all sorts of familiar and unexpected characters who help us during our lives

Includes display of human tissue

The Apothecary Shop

Travel back 400 years to become an apprentice to an early pharmacist

Future Space Gallery

Temporary exhibition area

Who Cares?

Who helps us look after our health and what can we do for ourselves?

Touching Vision film

A creative documentary reflecting on the hand transplant process

Breakout Space

Innovation Station

Be inspired by the story of Thackray and DePuy Synthes to create the next medical invention

Normal and Me

What is normal for you and your body, and is that the same for everyone?

In Focus

Response to Crisis

Find out how medicine responds to world crises, including war and epidemics

Includes display of human tissue

Sexual Health Clinic

Includes display on sexually transmitted infections (STIs)

First Floor

We suggest taking a photo of these maps to refer to during your visit

Suggested route