OCR Questions 1 a) b) and c)

(3 marks - 1 mark for each correct answer)

a) Give one reason why people's health worsened when they moved into industrial towns in the 19th century.
b) Name one way in which people in towns obtained their water during the period 1800 to 1900.
c) Name the killer disease that first hit Britain in 1831 - 32.

a) Name the man who wrote 'The Sanitary Condition of the Working Class' in 1842.

b) Give one example of the working conditions of factory children in the nineteenth century.

c) Give one reason why Dr John Snow took the handle off the Broad Street pump in 1854.

OCR Questions 1 a) b) and c)

(3 marks - 1 mark for each correct answer)

a) Name the man who wrote 'The Origin of Species' in 1859.

b) Give one reason why Louis Pasteur's Germ Theory is important in the history of medicine.

c) Give one reason why the 1848 Public Health Act was ineffective.

a) Give one effect of the Reform Acts of 1867 and 1884.
b) What did night soil men do?
c) Name one 19th century disease that was spread by contact with an infected person.

OCR Questions 1 a) b) and c)

(3 marks - 1 mark for each correct answer)

a) Give one reason why Joseph Bazalgette is important in the history of public health in Britain.
b) Give one reason why some local councils failed to improve public health before 1875.
c) Name one of the Liberal Reforms passed between 1906 and 1914.